Several automobiles left the city yesterday afternoon for Burlington, and among the number in them were Frank L. Small, J. S. Wilson, Judge F. J. Martin, Arthur D. Young, W. D. Mower, Wallace Gilbert, William Cole, James G. Pirie, J. K. Pirie, Frederick Pirie, Grover Pirie and Clinton F. Millar. This week the annual meeting of the Masonic grand lodge of Vermont is being held at Burlington. Arthur Merrill and George J. Seager left this morning to attend the meeting.

Langley and daughter, Marcia, started by automobile this morning for Wellesley, Mass., to attend the graduation exercises at Wellesley college, where Miss Esther Langley receives her diploma this week. Mr. and Mrs. James T. Marston and family have gone to Northampton, Mass., and will return with their daughter, Vivian, a student of Smith's college, after the commencement week.

Barre granite is specified and except for a few minor details the design is to be a duplicate of the Dr. Jackson memorial in Elmwood cemetery, for the family memorial to be erected in Bradford by Col. H. E. Parker, publisher of the Bradford Opinion and one of the best known lumber men in New England. Few private memorials are better known than the Dr. Jackson monument, which is in the form of a cross with a delicately sculptured figure as a part of the design. The work is to be cut for Fayette Cutler of this city by Hoyt & Mills, Depot square granite manufacturers.

The stock for the memorial is to be taken from the well-known deposit of the Standard Granite company in Graniteville. It is expected that the cutting will be under way within a short time and erection of the stone in Bradford will take place late in the summer or in early fall.

RED CROSS NOTES

The regular monthly business meeting of the Barre branch of the Red Cross, postponed from last week, was held last evening, when reports were read and matters pertaining to the work were talked over. It was voted to discontinue the holding of meetings at the work room on Monday and Friday afternoons during July and August, but they will be continued through the month.

The May quota, shipped this month, was as follows: 45 pairs children's stockings, four pairs men's socks, two sweaters, two scarfs, two pairs wristers, 40 girls' petticoats, 40 pairs drawers, 20 chemises. The June quota, now in process of completion, consists of 100 garments.

Just now a special appeal has been sent out for the making of layettes for babies, 9,000 of which remain to be done between now and September, and the work of each branch has to be completed 10 days before that to allow for shipping and having the garments reach headquarters at the right time.

The work of making the layettes is simple and an appeal is made for all who can do so to take one or more of these for summer work.

The plan is this: Mrs. Frank W. Robinson, chairman of the sewing department, will order material for as many of these layettes as the women in Barre will signify their willingness to make. There are many ways to get these layettes finished. Some take one or more of them to make and then, by having piazza parties and getting the help for a few hours of many hands, the work is quickly and pleasantly done, while others use them for summer pick-up work. Think quickly and decide if you will take at least one of these layettes and then telephone Mrs. Robinson, 181-M, before June 15 so that she may know exactly how many to order. You will have until the last week in August to complete the sewing, when the rooms will be open for the return of the work and Mrs. Robinson will see that they are shipped in time to reach their destination by Sept. 1.

The last Red Cross bulletin calls special attention to the need of the women and babies of these layettes, and also for knitted articles. Red Cross workers are urged to take their knitting away with them this summer and produce both sweaters and stockings for the children as well as the layettes before mentioned.

In Barre there is still enough yarn on hand at the Red Cross room for so children's sweaters, several pairs socks and also for mufflers. For the latter there are different colors, left over from former orders, which could be very prettily worked into stripes in mufflers. Just now there is a special call for knitting and, inasmuch as the work room is to be closed through July and August, it is especially desirable that all this yarn be given out for summer work. After this has been disposed of, if there is still a call for more yarn it can be obtained from Montpelier by Mrs. S. N. Parker, chairman of the knitting department, but it is desired to clear up that now on hand first.

The last word from overseas is: "All the garments that the women of this country can produce, plus all the garments it is feasible for the Red Cross to have made in factories, will not be sufficient to meet the needs of the suffering people of Europe."

MONTPELIER

Two Fines Paid for Violation of Automobile Laws.

The Montpelier police force has commenced action against persons who have been careless in their observance of the automobile laws, with the result that two persons were fined $5 and costs in Montpelier city court this morning on the charge of breaking the law of the road at the head of State street in Montpelier. These are Jiddo Cappio and M. C. Woodbury, both of whom pleaded guilty this morning. The police have placed three more "turn to the right" signs in Montpelier to help automobile drivers in observing the law of the road. These are on Elm street, and at the foot of East State street, while the third was recently placed at the Berlin street end of the red arch bridge on Main street.

The teachers of the Union-school, that is, the grades, in Montpelier, are completing their arrangements for the graduation exercises that will take place on Thursday evening of this week in the high school auditorium. For the last two years a pageant has been given, but this year an operetta entitled, "The Jolly Farmers," is to be given. The first scene is the "Welcome the Dawning Chorus," while the second scene is a picnic scene. At the end of the operetta the superintendent of schools will present the diplomas to the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith gave a party at their home last evening to a company of friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Boyles in honor of the 10th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Boyles' marriage. The evening was pleasantly enjoyed with dancing. Refreshments were served. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Boyles were presented a sum of money in gold.

W. S. Smith has settled his account in probate court as administrator of the estate of Andrew Tomasi, late of Montpelier, while George Dupuis of Orange has settled his account as administrator, with will annexed, of the estate of Adelaide Dube, late of Barre Town. Carroll White has settled his account as guardian of Helen R. Cole, late of Barre City, and has been relieved of his duties. Mabel Cole has been appointed guardian in his place.

Mrs. Frank Dunn of Roxbury, Mass., is visiting with Miss Hilda Sheridan, her sister.

The divorce case of Maude J. Mayer of Woodbury vs. Frank Mayer of an unknown residence, has been filed in Washington county court.

James Haney and Mrs. Agnes Dayett have gone back to Colebrook, N. H., in company with an attorney named Holden, who came here after them Monday. It is alleged they were registered at the Montpelier house under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Sweett. The attorney had papers made out by Grand Juror John H. Stone, charging them with adultery, but these were not served and the attorney told the police that the charges would be pressed against them when they reach Colebrook. The woman has children in Colebrook.

Miss Christina Murray, after visiting friends in Barre yesterday, left last night for Springfield and Biston, Mass., to spend two or three weeks with relatives in those cities.

THE SOLDIER'S CHOICE.

Disabled Soldiers Pleased with Opportunities for Retraining.

Washington, D. C., June 10.—Disabled soldiers retraining with the federal board of vocational education believe in passing along the good thing they have found. A young fellow, one of the first to go to France, came back with a shrapnel wound in his side, after having been gassed, but he still has pluck enough left to undertake a course in mechanical drafting. He is so pleased with the change in his future outlook that he wants other wounded boys to know and writes: "I hope someone will take the trouble to tell them. Tell the people for me that those fellows ought to know about it, ought to have a chance to learn." Another boy in speaking of his training, says: "Without this chance I would be up against it."

The government stands ready to point every disabled soldier in the country to a better job and those who are availing themselves of the opportunity are proving that their aim is to make good. The soldiers' approval proves that the scheme is sound.

Any soldier who wants to know more particulars of the plan may write to the federal board for vocational education, 200 New Jersey avenue, Washington.
